

Looking for Things to Do in July? Come Get Energized at the Insectarium and Botanical Garden!

Montréal, July 9, 2009 – Summer is finally here and Montréal's Nature Museums are inviting you to come out and enjoy the sun at the Insectarium and Botanical Garden throughout July. Admire the colourful blooms and savour the fragrances, travel to other places in our authentic cultural gardens (Chinese Garden, Japanese Garden and First Nations Garden) and have some “natural” fun in the BuzzGround. Here are some ideas for sunny activities to recharge your batteries:

POPULAR ACTIVITIES AND EVENTS IN JULY

Asian Music and Dance Festival*

Chinese Garden, July 9 to 12, 1:30, 2:30 and 3:30 p.m.

Showtime! A veritable festival of Asian colours and rhythms, as Chinese, Indian, Japanese and other folk groups take the stage.

 Cancelled in case of rain*

Tree House Days

Tree House, July 18 and 19

Enjoy some unusual ways of exploring nature. Learn to identify oak, maple, cherry, ash, walnut and other trees, through fun activities and exhibitions for all ages.

Activities on a Native theme
